A Word from Revd Claire

My first week in Parish has been amazing. I am overwhelmed with joy at the support and welcome I have received as we begin our journey together. The Ark and Place of Welcome are fantastic. The Amington Fete on Saturday was very well attended and it was a joy to meet Fr. Michael and others in the community as well. The work of the Street Angels in particular made me think. They are often unseen by those of us whose nightclub days are in the past, but it really struck me as a great act of witness to go out on a Saturday night with the sole purpose of caring for those they encounter. Then on Sunday - just Wow! Thank you to everyone who contributed to make my first week amazing. Rev Claire

To those who still have holidays to come, their gift of a holiday tea towel is still most welcome during the holiday season.

Thank you to those who have already contributed. Your response has been overwhelming.
